MECHKUEVSKA KUKJA-PUZHE is one of the most elite restaurants in Sveti Nikole. It is built in style of an ethno house and it has two floors and a summer garden. The elements of the interior are carefully selected and evoke a sense of warmth, memories of a near and distant past, affiliation to a centuries-old history and tradition woven into the arms of this house.

You will be warmly greeted by the cheerful faces of the staff, and, with their help, you will soon enter the world of gastronomy. Here, the masters of good food will prepare a variety of appetizers, house specialties and desserts for you which will delight your senses with its unforgettable taste and take you back to the time when our grandmothers have prepared the same dishes besides the fireplace. When eventually you toast with a glass of varietal wine, enriched with sounds of pleasant music, you will count the minutes until your return to this wonderful atmosphere.
